TRI-M Music Honor Society

Welcome back to another great year of the Avon High School chapter of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. The Tri-M Music Honor Society is the international music honor society for middle/junior high and high school students. It is designed to recognize students for their academic and musical achievements, reward them for their accomplishments and service activities, and to inspire other students to excel at music and leadership. Through more than 5,500 chartered chapters, Tri-M has helped thousands of young people provide years of service through music in schools throughout the world. Tri-M is a program of the National Association for Music Education. We are excited to kick off another great year of community service and music making in our community!

As a member of the Avon High School Chapter of the Tri-M Music Honor Society you will be required to:

- Tri-M members must perform two hours of community service, one hour being music-related, every two months. Volunteer hours are to be reported to Mr. Brochu by the last Friday of the following months: November, January, March and May.
- Tri-M members must be involved in an AHS performance ensemble and is required to attend or perform in at least one choral, orchestra and band concert.
- Tri-M members are required to volunteer at the Northern Region Auditions on 11/21/15.
- All NEW Tri-M members must perform at the Tri-M induction recital on 10/29/15
- All RETURNING Tri-M members are required to perform at least once publicly during the school year.

Attendance Policy:

- Students are expected to attend all Tri-M meetings however, there are extenuating circumstances that may prevent attendance. Meetings will take place on the 1st and 3rd Friday of every month.
- Students are allowed three unexcused absences per semester.
- Students are expected to notify Mr. Brochu in advance of an absence.
- Students that exceed three absences may lose their membership depending on the circumstance.

Thanks in advance for your cooperation and we look forward to a successful school year!
